Oldfield Defeated Vanderbilt in Exciting Auto Race.

NEW RECORD MADE

O'BRIEN AND RYAN TO MEET IN LONGER ROUND BATTLE.

Baltimore Shooters Won—Rough Riding at New Orleans Brush Don't Want Davis.

Barney Oldfield, an American, driving an American automobile, won the one-mile championship at Ormond, Fla., yesterday from William K. Vanderbilt, Jr., who drove a car of European make. It was a joyous occasion in the American camp when the Winton Bullet, No. 2, built for the international cup race last year, in which it was a rank failure, shot over the mark victor one of which won the cup race last year. Vanderbilt was beaten by three seconds at the finish, but that does not tell the story of the hard struggle down the wavy beach along the edge of the in-rolling waves in a fog which obscured both cars.

Spectators along the course, which started at Daytona and ran southward, told of a struggle side by side to a point some distance beyond the half-mile point. Oldfield was barely leading at that point. Then Vanderbilt threw in his fourth speed and the machine was clogged with too large a gear for the engine. Oldfield shot away one hundred and perhaps one hundred and fifty yards before the millionaire could get back to the third gear, which had been keeping him at a standstill. At the finishing point there were many anxious men, including Winthrop E. Scarritt of the Automobile Club of America, because the hunter on the course could not see the stretch was heard a sound as of heavy artillery as the two great monsters with their daring drivers came rushing on. Nearer and nearer came the sound, and then from the mist shot the two machines, with Oldfield leading. Tom Cooper, beside Oldfield, and crantically waved his arms as the long rakish bullet went over the tape just three seconds ahead of Vanderbilt.

He made no excuses then and it was from a private source that the information came in regard to the gears. The final time, which Oldfield had beaten in a heat when he defeated Stevens and Bowden in 43 seconds, a new competitive record for the one-mile race, was thus brought to America and to Florida's course. Augier after driving the car, tried to make it go faster, but it failed. Without wind and with the course wavy, which scattered loose sand over it to bunch when the breakers rolled, the record of 43 seconds stood as a competitive record of great excellence. Stevens gained the right to start in the final heat through being second in the first heat. H. L. Bowden was second in the first heat to Vanderbilt, who won in 48.48.

Vanderbilt also won the first heat of the five-mile race for gentlemen drivers. The timing instrument was not installed and no time was taken.

No other races could be run because the tide rose. There were unnecessary and vexatious delays in running the races yesterday, and not one-third of the program was run off. The events will be carried over until today, and the meet must necessarily go into next week.

Today Vanderbilt and Oldfield and Bowden meet in the five-mile championship race. William K. Vanderbilt, Jr., said last night that his racing car would be sold at the close of this meet. His object in selling is not known, but it is probable that he will seek a new and faster car for next year. He has agreed to again compete at Ormond. He will be a member of the A. A. A. racing board next season, and as such may take no part in racing, but will go in for speed trials.

Next year's meet is assured by subscriptions taken Wednesday night for the thousands of dollars subscribed to be devoted to the purchase of handsome cups. W. K. Vanderbilt, Jr., has donated $500, N. M. Flagler adds $500, Mrs. Howard Gould, $250; W. G. Brokaw, $250; S. D. Stevens, $250; J. H. Hoadley, $250; A. D. Proctor, $250; C. G. Burgoyne, $250; James L. Breese, $250; and Talmage Hand, $100.

One of the most interested spectators of the races yesterday, standing in the crowd on the beach, was Gov. Jennings of Florida, who is an automobile enthusiast. Sanders-Dumont was also present, and as such a spin in the machine of W. G. Brokaw up and down the beach, declaring it the greatest automobile route he ever rode upon.

O'Brien Will Meet Ryan Again in Longer Contest.

The consensus of opinion in Philadelphia regarding the fight Wednesday night between Jack O'Brien and Tommy Ryan is that it was a great battle. After thinking the bout all over they are of the opinion that it was a rather different kind of a fight after O'Brien knocked Ryan down in the fifth round. They are still wondering just what it all meant. O'Brien knocked Ryan down and then Ryan all but finishing O'Brien, and yet not really doing so.

O'Brien has a kick coming as to the weight of the gloves with which he fought. These were furnished, according to a clause in the agreement, by Tommy Ryan.

Ordinarily the weight of contest gloves is five ounces. Jack claims those which he was required to use Wednesday night weighed six and a half ounces. His friends unite with him in the assertion that the gloves were too heavy. On the result, and that had the usual five-ounce gloves been used O'Brien's showing would have been even better than it was.

O'Brien, who is in Philadelphia, says: "Ryan is one of the easiest men to hit that I ever fought. I was a little bit sure as I am standing here that I can win from him in a longer bout, or even in another six-round affair. The fifth round of Wednesday night's bout was my own fault. I grew careless after I saw that I had such an easy proposition before me, and one of two Ryan's blows on the stomach cut me in two. I am sure that I can make as big a monkey of him as I did in the first four rounds of Wednesday night's fight. I am willing to meet Ryan at any time, place, and for any amount. I am even willing to box him, winner take all."

Ryan was excited bright and early in the Quaker city yesterday morning and said: "I want to get that fellow in a bout of fifteen or twenty rounds, and then you can see just who is the better man. He weighs many pounds more than I do, but at that I had him beaten, and no one knows it better than this morning. I am sure that I can win from him in a longer bout, or even in another six-round affair. The fifth round of Wednesday night's bout was my own fault. I am even willing to box him, winner take all."

After the bout Wednesday night Manager Gallagher of the Mauch Chunk Athletic Club offered the two men 70 per cent of the receipts to meet at any time and place. He offered to build a suitable arena and post a forfeit to pull off the fight without police interference. O'Brien has accepted the offer and Ryan has it under consideration. It is likely also that an offer will be made by Billy Considine of Detroit.

the appeal against the sponge in the ring at a critical moment. The receipts for the fight were the greatest ever taken for a boxing bout in Philadelphia. The gross high-water mark was $4,400, but the sum netted Wednesday night far exceeded that amount, being between $8,000 and $8,500. Up to Tuesday night $2,000 was disposed of, and the balance while $300 was taken in Wednesday afternoon, bringing the advance sale up to $2,300.

Every $3 and 1/2 cent was sold before the doors opened, and inside of fifteen minutes after the sale of $2,300 seats was started for the benefit of the poor and the hungry.

INTERESTING SHOOTING MATCH. Baltimore Team Defeated Wilmington by 55 Targets.

The Baltimore Shooting Association's team of ten men defeated the crack Wilmington team of ten men at the Baltimore Shooting Association grounds yesterday by a score of 520 to 474. Each man shot at 100 targets.

The weather conditions were not favorable for big scores. It was dark and cold during the early afternoon and snow fell while several squads were shooting their last twenty-five targets. The Baltimoreans had the result secured early, finishing with a margin of fifty-five targets.

In the first shoot between these clubs, held at Wilmington, Del., December 30, there were nine squads for practice. The final scores then were Wilmington 691, Baltimore 611, the Wilmington team winning by a margin of 80 targets.

In the results of the two shoots reckoned jointly the Wilmington boys have a lead of 25. Each contest, however, is a match, and the conditions call for the best two matches out of three for the interstate championship.

The deciding race will be shot at Lester German's town, Aberdeen, Md., within the next thirty days.

There is a nice, clean, earnest rivalry between the two clubs, and each will put forth extra efforts in attempts to win the deciding contest. The Wilmington boys proved to be a jolly set of true sportsmen, and the conditions called for the best two matches out of three for the interstate championship.

BENNING SPRING HANDICAPS. Entries, It is Announced, Will Close February 10.

The date of the running of the first Benning spring handicap is now less than thirty days away, and the announcement of the conditions for the race has been eagerly awaited by those owners who elect to begin the season's campaign at Benning, and there is little doubt that the entries will be made on the same liberal scale as in the past.

Entries for the first and second Benning spring handicaps, the first of which will be run on the Benning track, will close February 10. The first of these is at six furlongs, and has $1,000 in added money. The second has an added value of $1,000, and the distance is seven furlongs.

The Benning Jockey Club's spring meeting will close February 16. The first of these is at six furlongs, and has $1,000 in added money. The second has an added value of $1,000, and the distance is seven furlongs.

On the same dates entries for the Grand Consolation, the principal event for two-year-olds of the autumn meeting, and the richest stake of the club's season will be run. The Grand Consolation has $3,000 added, and is framed to be a consolation event for horses which have failed to win in the big events of the metropolitan season.

The conditions provide penalties and allowances, and the winning of $10,000 or more in the season will entitle a horse to a special prize.

Entries for the three steeplechase events will close March 1.

The improvement in the course at Benning track is now nearly finished, and conditions for the running of the event, whatever the weather conditions may be, there is every reason to believe that a better class of horses for the handicaps than in the past, as owners who have heretofore begun the season at the New York track will begin at the beginning by racing at Washington.

The Washington Jockey Club has postponed the closing of entries for the Dixie and Veech stakes, and has decided to run the early summer of that year. Originally they closed to entries in the spring of the year, but they have decided to run the early summer of that year.

NEW ORLEANS RACES. Jockey Cochran Set Down for Two Weeks for Foul.

This winter there has been an amount of rough riding at the New Orleans Jockey Club track. Boys have had their lives endangered time and time again, but until yesterday the stewards have taken no real action to keep the rough riders down. Yesterday Jockey Cochran was set down for two weeks as a result of his tactics in piloting Ethies in the handicap.

Ethies won, and he carried $2,000. Cochran was set down for two weeks as a result of his tactics in piloting Ethies in the handicap.
